

Gary A. Sherwood, Treasurer

Gary Sherwood's professional career includes a diverse background of work experience, including more than 35 years of line and staff assignments in all aspects of hospital operations and medical practice administration. For more than twenty-five years Sherwood progressed into senior management positions, including policy making, planning, and broad operational responsibility.

Sherwood's academic background includes a B.S. in Pharmacy from Oregon State University and a M.B.A. from Miami University (Ohio).

In addition to serving on the Board at Dogs for Better Lives, Sherwood has served on several other boards of organizations providing services in education and arts and human services. Personal interests include: traveling, cooking, spectator sports, and family activities especially involving his five grandchildren.

Sherwood has sincerely enjoyed his opportunity to serve on the Board of Directors for Dogs for Better Lives. Accomplishing Dogs for Better Lives' mission of professionally training dogs to help better the lives of others and empower them to become even more productive along the way, is a real joy.

